

Announcing iTAWC* 2013 in Vancouver, BC

(*Intensive Treatment for Aphasia in Western Canada)

pronounced "I Talk", iTAWC is a specialty clinic of Columbia Speech and Language Services, Inc.

Early registration rate if registered by Feb 15, 2013!*

One full month of programming including six hours of speech and language treatment each weekday for four weeks, plus one week of assessment, orientation, family meetings, guest speakers, debriefing and future planning.

- High ratio: 3.5 speech-language pathologists (SLPs) and 6 speech interns for 6 clients.
- Limited registration - maximum of six clients.
- Individual treatment – two hours each of one- to-one therapy with an SLP each day +
- Two hours of paired constraint-induced language therapy each day +
- Group treatment – for conversational practice, functional goals, and self confidence +
- Practice sessions – each day, with a UBC SLP intern, supervised by a registered SLP +
- Pre-testing will ensure that we can tailor the program to individual needs +
- Post-testing will document changes and focus future recommendations +
- A personalized report with suggestions for maintaining progress into the future.
- $17,500 per person. Registration accepted only up to April 1st, 2013 (space permitting)
- Early registration: $16,000 for those paid and registered in full by Feb 15th, 2013!!
- Program dates: June 24th – July 26th, 2013.
- Location: On the beautiful University of British Columbia campus

Strictly limited to the first six eligible applicants.

(Please note this program has sold out early for the past two years)

For more information or for an application package contact us:

info@columbiaspeech.com or 604-875-9100 or visit our sister websites

www.itawc.com or www.columbiaspeech.com